Join colleagues from around the world and gain access to the CHEST learning and training experience at our congress. This unique program will go beyond the classroom style setting to connect you to leading experts who will teach and help you and your team develop your skills.

Register at congress.chestnet.org
Who should attend?
You and your team will benefit from the CHEST Congress 2019 learning and training experience. This congress is ideal for the specialties below, and we look forward to receiving many more in Thailand.

- Anesthesiologists
- Cardiologists
- Cardiothoracic Surgeons
- Critical Care Nurses
- Critical Care Physicians
- General Medicine Physicians
- Hospitalists
- ICU Medical Directors
- Pediatric Pulmonologists
- Practice Administrators, Executives, & Managers
- Pulmonologists
- Respirologists
- ICU Nurses
- Respiratory Therapists
- Sleep Medicine Physicians

What to expect?
Take advantage of these opportunities:

- Hands-on practice
- Cutting edge advances
- Instructional gaming area
- Learn from experts (local and international)
- Unique life-like simulations
- Take-aways for your practice
- Learning retention techniques
- Forefront of experiential learning

Program Highlights

- Postgraduate Course
- Pulmonary Infections Track
- Diseases of the Airway Track
  - Includes: Asthma, COPD, and Bronchiectasis
- Pulmonary Malignancy Track
- Sleep Disorders
  - Includes: Primarily Sleep-Disordered Breathing
- Interventional Pulmonary Procedures Track
- Guided Poster Presentations
- Satellite Symposia

Save the Date: Athens, 27-29 June 2019
CHEST is taking its initiatives to a wider global audience. Mark your calendar for a Regional Congress taking place in Athens, Greece on June 27-29, 2019. Plan now to attend these innovative and diverse clinical education opportunities.

You can find all the congress details at athens.chestnet.org.